

Engage with Releasing God Assignment

Assignment:

Engage directly with God concerning how He flows out from you as rivers of life to heal and bless others.

Purpose of the assignment:

- To regard God's word as Christ Jesus inside of you without altering what He says or attempting to "do" it yourself.
- To ask God to fulfill His specific word, out of your belly flow rivers of living water, in fullness in your life through these words: "Let it be to me according to Your word."
- To intertwine yourself with the Person of God inside of you, to contend with Him concerning His reality of making Himself known through you to all of His creation.
- To walk in the confidence that the Spirit of God flows out from you as rivers of life and joy every moment, to think that whenever your thoughts tend towards yourself.

General guidelines for Engaging with Releasing God:

Although this assignment page is worded in a similar way to past Engaging with God assignments, adding the words of Jesus in John 7:37-38 changes how everything sounds. In other words, read it all again carefully and follow it regarding God flowing out from you. This is a big deal, something we must know as an essential part of ourselves for real.

This is an exercise between you and Father. Find a time and place when you are by yourself and where you can speak aloud without interrupting anyone else.

You will not be sharing anything of this experience with God as a class assignment. However, free to share in the fellowship forum concerning anything specific God made real in you as a result of this exercise.

Specific directions for this assignment concerning John 7:37-38:

1. Begin your engagement with God by going through the first three steps you did in prior engaging with God assignments. These steps are not a one-two-three requirement, but rather, the nature of your heart and mind as you relate with your Father, this One who fills you full.
2. Take this word before God: "Father, Your Spirit flows every moment out from my belly, from my heart, from my innermost being, out from Jesus alive in my heart. Father, I don't have to see anything to know that it is true, because You say. Father, I know that right now people are being blessed by You as I walk by."

3. Repeat Mary's embrace of God's word in your own words: Let it be to me according to your word.
4. Ask God to fulfill this word in you in your own words. Be specific about the things that came alive to you thus far in this course.
5. Give God thanks that He has already accomplished all that He speaks and that you are simply waiting upon Him, braided together with Him, until the moment when the cover is removed from your eyes and you see for real that all that God speaks has already been true all along.
6. Go back through the lessons in this session, ask, give thanks, and speak with confidence concerning each point that Jesus especially makes alive to you. Especially spend time fellowshiping with the realization of the precious Holy Spirit always moving out from your expectation of faith.
7. Go through the next days and months and years, speaking in your heart, out loud with your mouth, that the Spirit of God is, in fact, flowing out from you as rivers of life and joy every moment, that other people are being blessed and lifted up simply because Jesus lives in your heart.
8. Disregard all sight of your eyes and all feelings of your own judgement. You will be hit with accusation and scorn from the realms of spirit. Do not "fight against" the accusation; simply continue to speak God's Word personal as you without regard to the accusation. You will be amazed at how easily the darkness breaks.
9. Make this word, the Spirit of God flows out of my heart as rivers of living water, as the definition of your life, of all you think and say and do. Make it the rule over how you hear and see every word in the Bible.
